Explanatory Note

Under section 24(1) of the Money Lenders Ordinance (Cap. 163) (Ordinance), a person commits an offence if the person lends or offers to lend money at an effective rate of interest which exceeds the rate specified in that section (interest rate cap). Under section 25(3) of the Ordinance, if the effective rate of interest under an agreement for the repayment of a loan or for the payment of interest on a loan exceeds the rate specified in that section (extortionate rate), the transaction is presumed to be an extortionate transaction.

- 2. Schedule 3 to the Money Lenders Regulations (Cap. 163 sub. leg. A) (principal Regulations) contains the form of a summary of the provisions of Parts III and IV of the Ordinance. Under section 18(1) of the Ordinance, a loan agreement is unenforceable if the summary is not included in or attached to a copy of a note or memorandum of the loan agreement.
- 3. This Regulation amends Schedule 3 to the principal Regulations so that the summary refers to the interest rate cap and the extortionate rate as respectively specified in the said sections 24(1) and 25(3).
