

G.N. 6147

CHINESE MEDICINE ORDINANCE (Chapter 549)

ORDER MADE BY THE CHINESE MEDICINE PRACTITIONERS BOARD OF THE CHINESE MEDICINE COUNCIL OF HONG KONG

Notice is hereby given that the Chinese Medicine Practitioners Board of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong, after inquiry on 31 August 2022 conducted pursuant to section 98(2) of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance (Chapter 549, Laws of Hong Kong), was satisfied that the following charge of professional misconduct against NG Hoi-yan, registered Chinese medicine practitioner (Registration No.: 006074), is proved:—

she was convicted at the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Kowloon City Magistrates' Courts on 7 October 2021 of an offence, namely, 'possession of pharmaceutical products which were not registered for the purpose of sale, distribution or other use', contrary to regulations 36(1) and 40 of the Pharmacy and Poisons Regulations, Chapter 138A, Laws of Hong Kong, and hence breached section 98(2)(a) of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance for having been convicted in Hong Kong of an offence punishable with imprisonment.

Pursuant to section 98(3) of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, the Chinese Medicine Practitioners Board ordered on 31 August 2022 that for the above established charge, NG Hoi-yan be reprimanded.

In accordance with section 104 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, the above order made by the Chinese Medicine Practitioners Board of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong is hereby published.

WONG Yu-yeuk Chairman, The Chinese Medicine Practitioners Board of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong
